FROM: Frederick O. Maia, W5YI-VEC

It has long been our wish to have really low priced $Part 97 Rule Books available to applicants for Amateur Radio Service licenses - especially beginners. The majority of our applicants apply for the Technician class and nearly all represent newcomers to the service. We find that very few of these ever get a personal copy of the rules - instead studying only the rule questions in the Novice/Technician question pools.

A new $Part 97 takes effect on September 1, 1989. Our group purchased the Federal Register 9-track magnetic tape from the government containing the new rules and typeset the document in-house. We believe we are the first to have the new $Part 97 available in the marketplace. A sample copy is enclosed.

The retail of this booklet is $2.00 and we have made arrangements with the Callbook, Inc. for them to distribute it to their dealer network. We retained the right, however, to offer the new Rule Book to ham clubs, at hamfests and to those actively engaged in amateur education and testing. Your cost will be the wholesale price of $1.00 per copy in multiples of one dozen - and we will pay the shipping/handling. (Someone outside of your VE/VEC group must handle the marketing if the Rule booklet is to be sold at a profit.)

It is our intention to have this $Part 97 Rule Book indefinitely available ...and to periodically update it as the rules change. Please indicate below if you wish us to ship you a quantity. (Shipment is within 24 hours.) The booklet contains no advertising whatsoever - nor is the W5YI-VEC even mentioned in any way. 73 ...Let us hear from you.
